

Chapter 16

Typography, Headlines and Infographics

Graphical excellence is that which gives to the viewer the greatest number of ideas in the shortest time with the least ink in the smallest space.

—Edward R. Tufte, professor of graphic design at Yale and president of Graphics Press
