z

A vibrant, stylized illustration of a woman, likely a queen, in traditional Indian attire. She wears a red forehead ornament (bindi) with a large gold jewel, a large gold earring, and multiple gold necklaces. Her hair is adorned with a gold crown and a blue veil. The background is a deep blue with stylized green and blue fish and floral patterns. The woman's right hand is raised, showing gold jewelry and a fish-shaped bracelet. The overall style is reminiscent of traditional Indian miniature painting.
